FLOOD ROMP CONTINUES IN NORTHWEST

Levees Crumbling As New Crest Approaches: 23 Known Dead Today

PORTLAND, Ore., June 4—Unbridled waters churned today through newly punched-out dikes on the Pacific northwest's far-flung flood front. More strained levees were crumbling. A new crest was rolling down.

The Fraser river in Canada crushed the barriers—at Barnston and Hatzic islands in British Columbia. Some 360 persons raced for their lives ahead of a wall of water 20 feet high that broke through on Barnston. All reached safety.

Reinforcements rushed to soggy dikes along the lower Columbia river's shores in Oregon and Washington as the massive flow of the big river threatened to widen its most destructive 1,200-mile surge to the Pacific.

The fresh flood crest was mounting in the Columbia, far up in the mountains where the blazing sun too quickly changed the deep snowpack into runoff water. The Snake river, main Columbia tributary, also was rising.

The collapse of Barnston and Hatzic dikes last night flooded more fertile farmlands, adding to the tremendous but yet untold millions of dollars damage in the north-west region.

Before the new rampages of the Fraser, estimates from qualified sources soared to $100,000,000 for the Columbia in Idaho and the lower valley in Oregon and Washington $30,000,000 for the Fraser. The death toll on the Columbia was 21, two on the Fraser.

A wall of water 20 feet high roared into Barnston. The saucer-like island, almost three miles long and one and one-half wide, is 20 miles east of Vancouver, B. C.

The Canadian navy at once sent six vessels in an attempt to save the marooned islanders who fled to the opposite from the break. More residents had been evacuated earlier when the situation had been considered more critical. The break came, a Canadian army official said, as "quite a surprise."

Among those on the island were 85 Canadian army and 60 Navy men who had been helping civilians in holding the saturated dikes. One of them was Col. J. Toogood, commander of the 13th armored regiment.

The break on Hatzic island, 45 miles east of Vancouver, was the largest along the Fraser during the current flood siege—800 feet. Water swept away the Canadian Pacific railway's double-tracked main line, a pump station and the station-keeper's house. The town of Dewdney was isolated and about 6,000 acres of land submerged. The British Columbia electric power station at Dewdney was knocked out.

On the lower Columbia, more troops and civilians hurried into danger areas to aid weary workers who have spent days strengthening scores of weak dikes against the river's savage onslaught.

Three Leetonia men were hurt in an accident at the intersection of Routes 164 and 626 at 2:15 p. m. Thursday. A car driven by M. R. Cohn, 54, of Youngstown collided with another driven by Frank Nicoletti, 18, of Leetonia, when Cohn did not yield.

Nicoletti suffered lacerations of the head, while two passengers in his vehicle, John Racioppo, 24, and Dale McCoy, 55, both of Leetonia, suffered head and facial lacerations. They were treated by a doctor.

Cohn was arrested by the patrol. His case is pending.

Cars driven by Donald Gosser, 28, of Alliance, and William E. Kozicky, 23, of North Lima, collided at the intersection of Routes 62 and 163 at 4:40 p. m. Thursday.

Neither was injured. Kozicky was arrested, his case pending.

The sheriff told the following story of the shooting: The grandfather, who operates the Wood lumber mill adjacent to his home, was host to a family get-together Thursday night. William was not present when the party began, but came in later.

Almost as soon as William arrived he and John began an argument. John later left the house, went to his own quarters and obtained a shotgun. On his return to the house, William saw the gun, succeeded in disarming him after a

Battle Goes On Despite Truce Plan

While UN Mediator Bernadotte negotiated for a truce date, Palestine fighting continued. An Israeli force, striking across the plains of Armageddon near Megiddo (1), attacked Arab-held Jenin (2), as other Jewish forces attacked Tulkarm (3). These cities, with Nabulus (4) are anchor points of the Israeli-held triangle from which the Arab drive on Tel Aviv (5) is based. Other fighting was reported around Jerusalem (6) and Arab roadblock at Latrun (7).

William and Edward Wood Shot In Home Near Alliance

William Wood, 26, of 844 Reed st., Alliance, is in poor condition and his grandfather, Edward Wood, 67, of R. D. 4, Alliance, in fair condition at Alliance City hospital today as the result of a shooting at the grandfather's home a mile east of Alliance on Route 62.

Sheriff George Hayes of Columbiana county said William was wounded in the chest and his grandfather in the shoulder by another grandson, John, who is half-brother to William. John resides in quarters at the rear of his grandfather's home.

The sheriff arrested John at the grandfather's home at 10:45 a. m. this morning and took him to the Alliance police department to be held while he completes his investigation. Hayes said he will take him to Lisbon where he would file charges of shooting with intent to kill.

Truman Not Seen As Train Passes

President Truman's train, bearing him on a political speech tour across the nation, passed through Salem at 9:25 a. m. today.

The President, presumably eating breakfast at that hour, did not appear on the observation platform of the 17-coach train which was pulled by two new Diesel engines. A crowd of about 20 people was at the station when the train went through at an unslacked speed of about 35 miles an hour.

Several sharp-eyed observers reported the presence of secret service men in the engine cabs and others noted the huge seal of the United States which adorned the rear platform of the President's coach.

A single engine preceded the train through Salem, carefully feeling out the tracks as a precautionary measure.

Salem police were stationed at each city crossing, at the request of the F. B. I.

The last president to hit Salem was Franklin D. Roosevelt, who made a similar visit here during his first term.

3 From Leetonia Hurt In Collision

Failure to yield the right-of-way on the part of two motorists caused two accidents Thursday and resulted in the injury of three persons, the state highway patrol reported.

Three Leetonia men were hurt in an accident at the intersection of Routes 164 and 626 at 2:15 p. m. Thursday. A car driven by M. R. Cohn, 54, of Youngstown collided with another driven by Frank Nicoletti, 18, of Leetonia, when Cohn did not yield.

Judge Says Lewis Out To Destroy Southern Group

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 4—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered John L. Lewis to bargain with the Southern Coal Producers association, headed by Joseph E. Moody.

Goldsborough granted a court order asked by attorneys representing Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board. The judge said it was apparent from the record Lewis did not want to bargain with the Southern association because he wanted to "destroy" it.

He suggested the United Mine Workers chief might desire to bring about the destruction of the Southern association "because it is harder to deal with" a single unit than with representatives of the 14 smaller associations through the south which make up the association.

"Certainly it's unreasonable in this present case for the union to say 'we're entitled to one representative for 99 units and the Southern Producers association is not entitled to one representative for 14 associations,'" he continued.

"This is not only not logical, but it is not reasonable," the judge said. New contract talks between coal operators and Lewis broke down May 18 when Lewis refused to consent to Moody sitting at the conference table as the association's representatives.

Goldsborough said: "But when the time comes that any movement—whether labor or not—undertakes to carry out its wishes by methods which ultimately disintegrate society—at that point it must stop."

The soft coal contract expires June 30, allowing less than a month for the operators and Lewis to make a new agreement.

More than one third of the nation's soft coal is produced by the groups making up the Southern association.

What might have been a serious fire in the Metzger hotel was extinguished at 1:08 a. m. today by the fire department, before it could gain any headway.

The blaze, under the stairs leading to the second floor, was in a small cupboard. Only rags and mops were destroyed.

The hotel guests were aroused by the department and told to be ready to evacuate in case the fire got out of control. Had it reached the stairs, it would have been impossible to get to the second floor of the building.

Hotel Fire Here Checked Rapidly

Several cities, such as Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, and Chicago, reported no increases. Prices dropped on some cuts at Los Angeles and Atlanta. At Atlanta, round steak dropped from 99 to 97 cents and sirloin from 99 to 95 cents. Round steak dropped from 75 cents to 69 cents a pound at Los Angeles.

See Continuation A Minneapolis meat dealer said the rising market was "definitely continuing" but that he didn't expect prices there to rise 10 cents. Spokesmen for the National Association of Meat Packers said prices were up in 10 cities as compared with those of May 21, before the strike ended.

Meat prices have continued upward since the CIO Packinghouse workers ended their strike May 25 but in most cases the increase has been slight, a nationwide survey in 10 cities showed today.

Experts in various cities differed, however, as to the reason for the continued increase. Many had predicted that the strike's end would bring more abundant and cheaper meat to the nation's dinner tables.

Today's survey showed the following average prices prevailing in the 10 cities as compared with those of May 21, before the strike ended.

	May 21	Now
Round Steak (per pound)	86.8 cents	90.8 cents
Bacon	74.3	74.4
Sirloin	87.0	91.0
Hamburger	52.4	55.6
T-bone	92.0	97.0

The biggest increases were at St. Louis and Detroit. Prices in these two cities appeared to have risen almost 10 cents a pound on each cut.

Safety Is Common Sense

School is out. The danger season for children is here. They will be exposed to more than the usual hazards for the next three months.

There is no substitute for common sense in the search for safety. Children must learn where the greatest hazards are and how to avoid them by experience. Common sense in most children is something that must be acquired; they do not know what an automobile can do to them if they run in front of it until they have been taught that danger exists.

That's why the real responsibility always must rest on the adults who drive automobiles. They know the danger. They know they can't depend on children to leave an adequate margin for safety. It is up to automobile drivers to leave enough margin of safety to take care of both their own errors and the errors of children.

As for children who drive automobiles, on the assumption that adolescence has mature judgment and therefore should be given the same latitude as a mature person, there apparently is nothing that can be done about them. The law finally will recognize that safety is an acquired attitude, not something that comes automatically when a person has reached a certain age. Until that time comes, children given responsibility for handling cars will be a menace both to themselves and everybody else on the highway.

Six Presidential Hopefuls On Delegate Prowl In U. S.

Six presidential candidates were on the move today in pre-convention skirmishing that reached into almost every section of the country. This is how it looked by regions:

Midwest—President Truman, on the first leg of his 9,000-mile cross-country swing, headed for Chicago where he speaks before a gathering of Swedish-Americans tonight.

South—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, a contender for the Republican presidential nomination, moved into North Carolina to make a bid for the state's 26 delegates to the GOP national convention which meets in Philadelphia June 21. Sen. Taft scheduled appearances in Charlotte, Statesville, Lincoln and Gastonia.

New England—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, another Republican contender, travelled to Boston to drum backing among Massachusetts' 35 GOP delegates. The Bay state delegation will cast "favorite son" votes for Sen. Leverett E. Saltonstall and House Speaker Joseph E. Martin on early convention ballots. Gov. Dewey hopes to get their support after that.

Far West—two other Republican contenders—Gov. Earl Warren of California and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota—joined in Reno, Nev. for a luncheon engagement. Stassen hopes to get backing among California's potent 53-member GOP delegation if and when Gov. Warren drops out.

Southwest—Third party presidential candidate Henry Wallace turned east after winding up his 15,000 mile western swing with a speech at Albuquerque, N. M., asserting that the real problems of today are obscured by charges of "Communism and Red." Wallace called for a "progressive political movement" to replace the present bi-partisan foreign policy.

Stassen met with several members of Iowa's Republican delegation at Des Moines yesterday. He told reporters later that the GOP convention now appears "definitely wide open" and that second choice strength in some states is of "decisive importance."

Elsewhere on the political front: Eisenhower—A source close to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said Gen. Ike has denied ever telling

Europe To Keep Its Scrap

It appears that most of the 10,000,000 tons of war scrap in Europe will stay there, even though it's vitally needed by American mills.

Army and State departments favor leaving the scrap to be allocated for reviving steel industries in Marshall plan nations. Their stand at present overrides the Commerce department claim that large shipments can be made to the United States, with plenty left for European needs.

American mills are consuming scrap at the rate of 32,000,000 tons a year, yet on March 31 inventories totaled only 2,700,000 tons. Eventual use of tonnage ore will reduce the need of scrap, but that's several years in the future.

It's ironic that Europe, a land of scarcity, has 10,000,000 tons of scrap while the United States, a land of plenty by comparison, should be short, exceptionally since most of Europe's oversupply is the product of American mills.

Who Pays the Bill?

As millions of newspaper readers and radio listeners know, more than 3,000 persons picketed the White House this week.

Their placards, protesting against the Mundt-Nixon bill and congressional failure to adopt new legislation on civil rights. But no one believes that many Americans happened to come to Washington (most of them were from New York) of their own free will. Someone sent them. Someone paid their train fare to and from the capital, ordered the placards, told them what to do and planned the whole thing. Who?

Newspaper readers and radio listeners, having heard this much of the story, would like to know the rest. Because the real story is the part that hasn't been told. What ax was being sharpened by this latest travesty of free speech and assembly? How much did this performance cost the people who stop at no expense to make it look as if the United States were on the brink of domestic chaos? When is the next performance scheduled and who will pick up the check for that one?

The Spreading Web

Air Force Gen. Vandenberg's request to congress to allocate $90,000,000 for a West Point of the air is another instance that tries the good faith of those who favor unification of the services. It seems triplication actually is what is being effected.

In the days when there was only an army and navy, each service had its opposite number in the other. With the air force raised to equal status, the web is spreading rather than contracting.

In the supply branches, real progress is being made in standardization of equipment and contract procedures. But on the highest levels, where policy is evolved and missions assigned, inter-service feuds, which were supposed to have been settled at the Key West conference, are breaking out anew.

Gen. Vandenberg told a house armed services committee the joint chiefs of staff never approved a super-aircraft carrier from which the Navy could launch strategic bombers. Admiral Denfeld several weeks ago told the same group the joint chiefs had approved it.

The subcommittee sided with the Navy and decided to approve the carrier, which will cost more than $125,000,000. But this contradictory testimony is another evidence that merger isn't being achieved and isn't likely to be until the top brass realizes it's all playing on the same team.

Churchill and Smuts

The case of Jan Christian Smuts in South Africa resembles that of Winston Churchill in the United Kingdom. Both statesmen won deserved world fame for their contributions to the defeat of nazism, and both have now been removed from their high office by the will of their countrymen.

But there is an important difference. Mr. Churchill's political downfall obviously resulted from the conservatism of his domestic policies. Marshal Smuts lost out because his domestic policies are, by his opponents' standards, too radical. Yet Mr. Churchill's voice has not been silenced or his influence destroyed by political defeat. And we hope that the aging Marshal Smuts may continue to combat the program of isolation and segregation, so out of key with progressive thought, which at present is his nation's choice.

A Practical Decision

General MacArthur acted with practical wisdom and high political morality in turning down the Senate Appropriations committee request to return before the Republican convention and testify on aid to China.

The Wisconsin and Nebraska primaries apparently taught the general all he wanted to know about his chances for the presidency. By refusing this obvious political invitation he saved himself and his backers some embarrassing exploitation. He also not only saved but surely enhanced the high esteem in which the American people hold him.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, June 5
By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

IT may seem difficult, perhaps almost futile, to keep the energies and initiative on a firm and enduring foundation, in the face of difficulties, complications, delays and congestions. Want of cooperation, disappointments, postponements and discouragement may instill a desire to "throw in the sponge." A week-end of relaxation, diversion and attention to rebuilding incentives and gain a sounder vision, could be advantageous.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, should take themselves in hand and school themselves in rebuilding their vision, energies and initiative if confronted by a static, congested or quarled state of affairs, discouraging and depleting. It might be wise to change such vibrations of depression, defeatism, limitation, frustration and hopelessness by relaxation, and attention to the physical health. Diversion, amusement and fun might be an excellent prescription, working along lines of least resistance.

A child born on this day may be indisposed to tackle the unpromising and frustrating conditions of life. Attention to physical energies could change its viewpoint, give a boost to its ego and modify its outlook of gloom.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

BY WALTER KIERNAN

Wallace may fly for a conference with Stalin . . . Joe gets lonesome if he doesn't see a presidential candidate once in a while.

Stassen made the last pilgrimage and was courteously received . . . in fact better than he was in Oregon.

But the feeling is that if a president or candidate would just sit down with Joe everything would come out perfect . . . as at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

There was a tremendous spirit of give and take at these conferences . . . of course it was a few years before we knew how much we had given and been taken for.

But it would be a good idea for the third-party candidate to visit Moscow . . . and it would be nice if Moscow had a second-party candidate to send here.

But avoid obstructions through a sixth sense. Don't explain some of the baseball stars' change.

Maybe a Georgia golfer who figured in an auto collision should improve his driving.

A Texas wind carried a cowboy close to the edge of a town. One of those trade winds, perhaps.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Help For Hay Fever Victims

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
THE hay-fever victim who wants to ward off next Fall's sneezes and sniffles must start now.

Hay-fever is due to sensitivity to the pollen from some weed, grass, or tree, usually ragweed, which is rife in most localities during the late summer and early fall.

If hay-fever sufferers start in time there is a good chance that they can build up an increased tolerance for this pollen during the time when they are free of symptoms so as to be able to meet it on more nearly equal terms when it appears in the air next September.

This is done by injections of gradually increasing doses of pollen extract. The treatment is most successful when it is carried out the year around for several years, but it can still be very helpful if started several months in advance of the hay-fever season.

It has been estimated that about 8 out of 10 of the patients properly treated by injection of the pollen extract will have from 75 per cent to 80 per cent relief from hayfever, and about one-fourth of the patients will be relieved completely. The earlier in life the treatment is started and the more faithfully it is continued for several years, the better are the chances that permanent immunity will be developed.

The injections are usually given at intervals of from four to seven days. During the hay-fever season, the injections may be given every week or two. Care in regulating the dosage, of course, is necessary in giving the injections, since reactions may occur if the dose is too large.

During the hay-fever season, the afflicted person should do everything possible to avoid contact with pollen. This is easily accomplished by a change to a different climate but, unfortunately, few people can afford this. For those who must stay at home there are filters which can be put into windows to remove pollen from the air coming into the room. By remaining in such a room as much as possible during the ragweed season, symptoms can, to a great extent, be relieved.

ARTIFICIAL TIRE RUBBER BEST YET

Experts Describe New Idea For Supplying Rubber For U. S. Industry

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, June 4—An artificial rubber "so good" its tire tread performance promises to top anything yet known, was described by a rubber expert today.

Development of the new rubber was announced several days ago by United States Rubber Co. as the work of the rubber, chemical and petroleum industries. It was described as the "most important development in synthetic rubber since the original general purpose synthetic was put into production."

The new rubber was developed by Dr. S. M. Cadwell, research and development director of United States Rubber, in an address prepared for delivery to Detroit's Rotary club, said the new rubber was produced at 41 degrees Fahrenheit instead of the standard temperature of 122 degrees.

This, he said, had resulted in improvements in the three major weaknesses of general purpose synthetic rubber. It has greater resistance to abrasion—probably 30 percent more than the best natural rubber compounds; has greater tensile strength and is less susceptible to cracking, Dr. Cadwell said.

Producing the new rubber at lower temperatures means combining the principal ingredients—bitumen and styrene—at temperatures heretofore considered impracticable.

Reducing the temperature, however, slowed up the chemical reaction, Dr. Cadwell said. It was found that instead of taking 12 hours to combine the two principal ingredients, it required several days to make a batch of rubber with even a moderate reduction in temperature.

The problem was solved, he said, when new "speed up" chemicals were discovered which would increase the rate of polymerization (combining). Dr. Cadwell said batches of rubber are being produced in the laboratories at even lower temperatures. "Methods have been worked out," he said, "for plant production of synthetic rubber at temperatures as low as 14 degrees Fahrenheit and zero Fahrenheit."

The new rubber is being produced in limited quantity at government plants operated by United States Rubber Co. at Borger, Texas, and Baton Rouge, La.

WESLEYANS' NEW PRESIDENT WILL TEACH ONE COURSE

DELAWARE, June 4—Dr. Arthur S. Flemming is the new president of Ohio Wesleyan university. Appointment of the 43-year-old member of the U. S. Civil Service commission was approved formally last night by the board of trustees.

In Washington, President Truman accepted "with deep regret" Dr. Flemming's resignation from the commission.

Because of his long association with the government, Dr. Flemming will hold the rank of professor of political science. He will teach an advanced class.

Will Implement Training
The political science professorship will provide a means, college officials pointed out, for the new president to implement some of his ideas about government service as a career.

In his letter of resignation from the Civil Service Commission, Dr. Flemming told the President that the government is making substantial progress in providing the nation with an effective career service. But, he said, much remains to be done.

He proposed a promotion program to insure "an adequate recognition of merit without perpetuating mediocrity," and salary ceilings higher than the present $10,000 a year.

To Ohio Wesleyan officials, Dr. Flemming has said that colleges and universities have the responsibility of training youth for government service. They have not, he said, been living up to that responsibility.

Dr. Flemming will take over his new duties Sept. 1. He succeeds Dr. H. J. Burghstahler, who became chancellor last year.

East Liverpool's Jaycees Win Honor

PHILADELPHIA, June 4—Ohio members stood out yesterday in awards presented by the 26th convention of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Two Ohio cities scored in public affairs competition. East Liverpool was third in cities under 50,000 population and Lima was third in cities over 10,000 population. Public affairs work included projects on getting out the vote on election day, and support for needed public legislation.

Gwynn Edmonds of Huntington, W. Va., was among delegates electing for the National Jaycees' presidency.

DEDICATE NEW EYE FOR U. S. SCIENCE

200-Inch Hale Telescope. For Photography, Is Put Into Service

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN, Calif., June 4—Astronomers ushered in a new scientific era today as they prepared to tackle the mysteries of the universe with the 200-inch Hale telescope—mankind's "window to the stars."

The giant telescope-camer atop Palomar mountain in Southern California was dedicated formally yesterday by some of the nation's top-ranking scientists. It will afford them twice the space-penetrating power of any instrument previously at their disposal.

Newsman who took their first peek through the "big eye" last night labelled the show something of a disappointment.

They gazed at the planet Saturn but said they couldn't see much. Saturn, 71,500 miles across, appeared as a globe about two inches wide.

Astronomers patiently explained, however, that looking through the telescope is meaningless. It wasn't designed for that.

When further tests are completed and additional equipment is installed, the "big eye" will be used to take photographs. The photos will show reflections in the telescope's 14 1/2 ton mirror of light from as far distant as one billion light years.

These photographs, or prismatic spectrographs, will be studied and analyzed painstakingly at California Institute of Technology.

Queen Wilhelmina, in poor health for months, announced a month ago she would step down in September, but did not set the date. Her abdication will follow the celebration on Aug. 30 of her fiftieth anniversary as ruler over the Dutch empire.

Princess Juliana now is princess regent, her mother having relinquished her royal duties last month for the second time in a year, because of her health. The queen is 67. Juliana is 39, the mother of four daughters.

TRUMAN CONFIDENT AS HE BEGINS TOUR

Happily Bids Reporters Goodbye, Tells Them Reports Will Come

(By Associated Press)
ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN EN ROUTE TO CHICAGO, June 4—An outwardly confident President Truman rode westward today for a major test of his popularity on an 18-state "grass roots" speaking tour.

He told correspondents as he boarded the 16-car special train at Washington last night that "if I felt better, I couldn't stand it."

Truman had no parting message for newsmen.

"You will get plenty of messages as we go along," he said.

The White House tagged the journey as "non-political" but no one questioned its possible effect on the political future of the gray-haired Missourian.

His first major, prepared address tonight at Chicago, at 10 o'clock shared interest with his prospective meeting there with Jacob M. Arvey, chairman of the powerful Cook county Democratic central committee, and his earlier platform appearances at Fort Wayne and Gary, Ind.

Arvey, who has advocated Truman's withdrawal from the race, will join the chief executive at dinner in the Palmer House. So will former Mayor Edward J. Kelly. The host is Mayor Martin Kennelly.

The off-the-cuff platform talks, at Fort Wayne, at 2:30 p. m., and at Gary at 4:45 p. m., will give the first indication of the President's hold on the voters on his pre-convention tour which will carry him to Los Angeles June 14.

There will be many other such extemporaneous talks from his train before he returns to Washington.

Although there was no representative of the Democratic national committee aboard Truman's train, Senator J. Howard McGrath, the Democratic chairman, saw him at the White House last night and drove with him to Washington's union station to see him off.

WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLET
NEA Staff Writer

To be happy a woman needs: A man who recognizes her good qualities and is willing to put up with her faults.

At least one woman friend with whom she can be honest.

Children so that her maternal instincts won't be misplaced or completely thwarted.

Enough work so that she never has to cook up ways of killing time.

At least one interest outside her family as an outlet for self-expression.

A home of her own which she can run to suit herself.

A plan for the future so that she is always working toward some goal.

The capacity to throw off self-consciousness so that they can never get her down.

Enthusiasm and a keen sense of enjoyment so she can find pleasure in even the little happenings of everyday life.

OTHERS TO JUDGE
Persons with faults so that she can in her own mind figure out just where they are making their mistake, and thank heaven she knows better.

Enough self-confidence so that she can't be worried, concerned over what other people think of her or of any of her faults.

bers aren't a great deal better off financially than she is.

War Movies, Previously "Untouchable," Big Stuff

BY ALINE MOSBY

HOLLYWOOD, People who figure they've seen the last of World War II can guess again. Hollywood has rediscovered the war.

The fightin' pictures movieland ground out back in the duration are hardly cold in the grave. But every guy in town with a camera is hauling out the olive drab again.

People who look Japanese or German are getting plenty of jobs. And the studios are sure happy they didn't throw away those scenes of dog-fighting planes and rumbling tanks; they can use 'em over again.

Fans, you're in for a long siege of "This is it, men" . . . or "It's bigger than you . . . bigger than me" . . . bigger than all of us" Or the usual terse whisper in the Jap-infested jungle, "It's quiet. . . yaa, too quiet."

Until a few weeks ago, a producer wouldn't touch a war script with his 10-foot cigar. Nobody wants to see those things, he'd snort.

Then a number called "Command Decision" rocked Broadway. Biggest hit in years. It was about the war next stage sensation: "Mister Roberts." It's about the war, too.

Hollywood forgot it had pooped-war movies. MGM snapped up "Command Decision." Warners' copped "Fighter Squadron." Fox also dusted off the crushed air force caps in the wardrobe dept. and began "Twelve O'Clock High." RKO's giving the infantry a break with a movie on the Battle of The Bulge. A little "B" movie company, though, beat 'em all to the punch. While the mighty studios were worrying over how to make their matinee idols look young enough for uniforms, Producers Frank Selzer and Hugh King got busy.

They bought an air force play, "West of Tomorrow." The movie script was written in five days. The picture was shot in 10. Before MGM can get that gray out of Gable's hair, the little "B" will be in your movie house.

Produced Selzer thinks he snarled a good cast, too. Including Kristine Miller (Hal Wallis' gorgeous discovery) and Arthur Franz, snatched from "Command Decision" on Broadway.

"Why Metro passed him up for their version we'll never know," the producer beamed.

"Our story is about a bunch of flyers, the 49th fighter group that shot down the first Jap plane in New Guinea."

It's not, he added, like those wartime flickers that showed grim-faced flyers mowing down 298 enemy planes while the marine hymn boomed in the background. None of that hero stuff that makes a guy want to climb into a uniform.

In fact, the whole second war-movie cycle is "more realistic and objective" about the war, says Producer Selzer.

Result Inconclusive In Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 4 — A runoff vote to decide Newfoundland's political future appeared virtually certain today.

Returns from yesterday's plebiscite on the question, now about two-thirds counted, strongly indicated that none of the three proposals on the ballot had received the 51 per cent margin necessary to win.

The standing, with 120,264 of 176,287 eligible votes in is: For return to independence and responsible self-government — 53,131.

For confederation with Canada as that dominion's 10th province — 48,185.

For retention of the present commission form of government — 17,948.

RUSSIA PROTESTS ANTI-RED PRESS

TOKYO, June 4 — A Russian spokesman today protested that "insolent slander" about his country had appeared in the Japanese press and a U. S. Army newspaper here.

Maj. Gen. A. P. Kislenco, in a letter to General MacArthur, demanded that the attacks be stopped.

Kislenco, acting Soviet member of the Allied council for Japan, charged a stepping up of "absolutely undisguised propaganda among Japanese of a new war against the U. S. S. R."

Declaring the press could not have acted without the knowledge of MacArthur's headquarters, he said:

"I insist that prompt measures be taken to stop similar occurrences and prevent their repetition in the future."

There was no comment by MacArthur.

STEEL EXPORTS WILL DECLINE

So Commerce Dept. Tells Congressmen; Reason Is Europe's Gain

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Commerce department estimates that 9 percent of this country's steel supply will be exported during the period between April, 1948 and June, 1949.

This would be about one and three-tenths percent less than in 1947, a house appropriations subcommittee was told in testimony made public today.

The department estimates that more than 76,000 tons of finished and semi-finished steel will be available domestically during the April, 1948-June, 1949 period.

Of this amount approximately 6,000 tons will be exported. Of the total exported, the department's estimate showed, about 2,517,000 tons will go to the 16 nations participating in the foreign aid program.

The committee also was told: 1. The nation lost about 9,000,000 tons of steel because of the coal and steel strikes of 1946.

2. About 1,500,000 tons of steel ingots have been lost because of this year's coal strike. This may mean there will be less steel to export.

3. Of the 5,970,000 tons of steel exported from the United States in 1947 about 125,000 tons went "behind the Iron Curtain." Russia, the committee was told, got $3,000 tons and Finland 25,000. The others received amounts that were not "significant."

4. The demand upon the United States for steel probably will continue to decline from year to year as European production continues to increase.

5. About one-half of the uncontrolled steel that was exported from this country in 1947 was from the "black market."

SURVEY

ciation of Retail Meat Dealers did not believe the price rise was general. Executive Secretary George Dressler said, however, that such a general increase may come soon.

"Many retailers absorbed a steady wholesale prices rise themselves during the packing strike in hopes that prices eventually would break," he said. "Since prices haven't broken, the retailers may now decide to pass some of the burden on to the consumers."

Dressler said also that a price rise is normal for this time of year due to a seasonal drop in supplies. But, he said, the strike made matters worse by pushing livestock marketings ahead instead of spreading them out over the season.

The Detroit Retail Grocers Association blamed the price rise on the nine-cent hourly pay raise awarded the Packinghouse Workers under the strike settlement.

A Cleveland retailer said packing firms told him the rise was due simply to a scarcity of meat.

A dealer at Salt Lake City said there was "really no good reason for the price increase."

"The farmers and packers were making plenty as things were," he said. "These new increases cannot be blamed on the meat strike alone."

Indianapolis market men claimed that prices were going upward in the midwest because more meat is being shipped to eastern markets, making it hard for midland buyers to buy as cheaply as formerly.

Some Des Moines retailers said they were "trying to hold the line" but that it was virtually impossible because of increases in "packer's prices."

SHARP BATTLE IN JENIN RAGES TODAY

CAIRO, June 4 — Israelis and Iraqi troops have fought a sharp battle inside Jenin, northern apex of an Arab triangle threatening Tel Aviv. On the Palestine coastal route to Tel Aviv from the south, Jews and Egyptians clashed in fierce combat, reports from both sides said today.

An Arab general headquarters source in Amman, Trans-Jordan, acknowledged that a Jewish armored column speared into Jenin. The informant declared Iraqi troops counterattacked and drove the Jews out.

The Jews said the Jenin drive placed the Israelis in a position to threaten Nabulus, the southern point of the triangle menacing Tel Aviv from the east. The western point of the triangle is at Tulkarm, just outside Israel's frontier, 22 miles northeast of Tel Aviv. Jewish planes bombed Nabulus and hit a police fortress, the Israelis said.

The Amman informant said Jewish troops struck a small Arab stronghold southeast of Haifa yesterday, causing considerable damage with armored car guns before withdrawing.

While negotiations for a truce continued, Jerusalem had 24 hours of relative peace. Hagah through yesterday was holding all but a small part of the modern city, but the Jews stood fast without attempting to improve their positions. Even the snipers took the night off, a dispatch from the city said.

FARM MACHINERY WILL BE EASIER TO GET, REPORT

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, June 4—A house committee has been told the nation's farmers will have more farm machinery available next year than this year, last year or before the war.

W. L. Beck, chief of the industrial machinery section of the Commerce department, made this estimate to a house appropriations subcommittee considering the foreign aid appropriations bill for the year beginning July 1. His testimony was made public today.

He estimated that of a total supply of $1,625,000,000 worth of farm machinery available in the U. S. next fiscal year, exports to other nations would be 22 percent, or $351,000,000 worth. He figured only eight percent, or $124,000,000 worth would go to countries in the European relief program.

This would leave available for American farmers next year $1,274,000,000 worth of machinery, Beck said, compared with $1,186,000,000 this fiscal year; $951,000,000 in the 1946 fiscal year and $466,000,000 the 1945-46 average.

The American farmer has approximately 40 percent more farm machinery than he had before the war," Beck told the committee.

New Strike Threat Faces Atomic Plant at Oak Ridge

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., June 4—A new strike threat faced an atomic plant today in the wake of overwhelming rejection by its workers of a final contract offer.

The employees, members of the AFL Atomic Trades and Labor council, turned down by a vote of 771 to 26 a 10-cents an hour average wage increase offered by carbide and carbon chemicals corporation.

The union has called a mass meeting for Sunday to decide on its next move.

VEECK DICKERING FOR SECOND TRADE

Rumor Has It That Trout May Be On Block Again; Veeck May Want Him

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 4 — The Cleveland Indians may have another trade on the fire.
The rumor ran rampant in the Wagon today after it was learned President Bill Veeck had huddled this week with Billy Evans, general manager of the Detroit Tigers.
Who the Tigers are interested in was a popular topic of speculation. The names of Infielder Johnny Berardino and Catcher Jim Hegan were prominently mentioned, although it is believed Veeck would decline an offer both for his utility infielder and his first string receiver.
Veeck long has been known to be in search for another starting pitcher. He turned down an offer for Paul (Dizzy) Trout, the Tigers' bespectacled right-hander, last spring, probably because of Trout's poor performance in 1947, but with Trout's return to form Veeck may again be interested.

WALCOTT IN MUCH BETTER SHAPE THAN LOUIS RIGHT NOW

Reporters Believe Walcott In Better Shape Than He Was At Last Fight

BY JACK CUDDY
United Press Writer
GREENLOCH, N. J., May 4.—If Jersey Joe Walcott were to fight Joe Louis tonight, the challenger probably would win by a knockout; for he is much sharper now than the champion.
Accordingly, the big pre-fight question is this: Can Louis match Walcott's condition and explosiveness by June 23, when they are scheduled to meet again at Yankee stadium?
Louis may achieve the necessary physical edge, for his rounds into shape gradually.
Walcott, after 72 rounds of sparring here at his near Lakeside camp, appears a better fighter than on the night of Dec. 5 when he nearly wrested the crown from the champ.
He has more confidence. He appears to have more stamina. He has improved his attack at close quarters, particularly his inside uppercuts. And defensively he is just as fast and elusive as in December.
More important, Walcott has sharpened his left hook until that portside blow seems just as explosive as the right jolt with which he floored Louis twice in their December meeting. Jersey Joe had a good left hook then, but it was not the menacing weapon that it appears now.
The Negro challenger from near-by Camden has been concentrating on his left hook for the past three weeks. That he has tamped plenty of dynamite into the left fist was demonstrated yesterday when it knocked Sparmate Austin Johnson colder than a frozen fish for a minute and a half.
Portside explosions also staggered apromates Curtis Sheppard, the "hatchet man," and Billy Norris several times. Norris was belted so groggy that Trainer Dan Florio halted the action to let him recover.
Brooklyn (Fort Hamilton) Frankie Abrams, 146, Detroit, outpointed Roman Alvarez, 144½, New York, 10.
Minneapolis — Jackie Graves, 126½, Austin, Minn., outpointed Harold Wade, 123½, Chicago, 10.
Saginaw, Mich.—Talmadge Busey, 133½, Detroit, and Harold Jones, 135½, Detroit, drew, 10.

Joe Louis 13 Years Ago and Today

There is a considerable difference physically in the Joe Louis, left, who first attracted world-wide attention by knocking out Primo Carnera 13 years ago, and the one training at Pompton Lakes, N.J., for a return match with Jersey Joe Walcott.

Tribe, Philadelphia Rained Out; Newhouser Wins Fourth Over Yanks With 6-Hit Game

BY BEN PHILEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds have come up with a lot of bad news for the seven other National league clubs. Ewell Blackwell's back in form.
The stringbean righthander, sidelined for a month with a sore shoulder, last night won his first game since April 23. He held the stugging New York Giants to two hits and a pair of runs in seven innings. Nine Giants went down on strikes, although Mickey Livingston blasted a bases-empty home run for the New Yorkers in the fifth.
Blackwell, who walked six, retired after the seventh and the Reds quelled a ninth inning rally to win, 6-4. Blackwell retired after he complained he was having difficulty breathing as the result of a heavy head cold.
The victory moved Cincinnati into sixth place in the National league, only four and a half games back of the leading Giants.
The loss cut the Giants' first place margin to a half-game over the St. Louis Cardinals, who broke a six-game losing streak. The Red Birds tripped Brooklyn, 4 to 1, in Sportsman park behind the brilliant four-hit pitching of Harry "The Cat" Brecheen.
The Pittsburgh Pirates pulled to within a game of the top by outlasting Boston, 5 to 3. The Braves picked up a run in the eighth, scored another and had the bases loaded with none out in the ninth when Elmer Singleton came to Kirby Higbe's rescue.
Young Richie Ashburn, whose powerful spring hitting boosted him from the Class A eastern league to the Philadelphia Phils, connected safely in his 20th consecutive game as the Phils downed Chicago, 4 to 3. Ashburn, the league's fourth hitter, smashed two singles and a double.
In the American league, Detroit spurred for four runs in the 11th inning to defeat New York 6 to 2 and Boston turned back St. Louis 3 to 2. Cleveland at Washington and Chicago at Philadelphia were rained out.
Hal Newhouser held the Yankees to six hits in winning his fourth straight game. Hoot Evers and Vic Wertz homered for Detroit, while Joe DiMaggio accounted for both New York tallies with a single and a long fly.

Tribe Baseball School Announced

CLEVELAND, June 4 — The Cleveland Indians will open their second annual baseball schools at Massillon, O., next week with the goal of uncovering new talent among Ohio high school youths.
Indian Scouts Laddie Placek and Glenn "Gup" Lewis, assisted by batting practice catcher Bill Lobe, will operate the school at Lincoln park in Massillon June 10-12. The school will move to the fairgrounds at Warren, June 17-19, under the direction of chief Tribe Scouts Bill Bradley and Laddie Placek, also assisted by Lobe.
In addition to signing promising young ball players to contracts, the Indians will try to pass on some of the "know how" of baseball to the youths enrolled in the schools.
The first two days will be devoted to instruction in hitting, pitching, fielding and other phases while the final day will feature a game between the best prospects.

The school will be operating for the first time at Massillon this year. At Warren last year the Indians signed Herman Wollitz, Bob Yuhas and Mike Lutz.
High school graduates who are not members of an American legion team are eligible to enroll in the schools.

Boyle's
COLUMN

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—If war comes tomorrow it will only be more of the same old bloody business battle has always been.

This is pointed up by a primer for total war put out by the defense department's munitions board in Washington.

Should a third world war break out in the immediate future, there could be no reliance on "push button" weapons. You have to have more than a button to win a push button war and that's all we've got today.

No other country has more than the button either. Beyond the button is design and experiment.

The plain truth is that if war broke out overnight we'd have to fight it pretty much on the basis of the last war. Certainly at the start, that is.

The report of the munitions board emphasizes that another war would require immediate and complete mobilization of national resources, industry and manpower.

FEW PEOPLE in the United States realize what this means. It means absolute and entire devotion of every ounce of the nation's energy toward one aim—support of the armed forces.

It means that war will begin at your own front door, figuratively if not literally. It means war on a 24-hour-a-day basis for everybody.

Only on such a basis could America defeat the only possible present enemy—Russia.

Over-confidence is the greatest enemy of any nation. Optimism thrives at the rear headquarters and on the home front. An enlightened pessimism always rules the courageous men on the actual battlefield. They face and fight the enemy, and they know his worth.

It never pays to underestimate a foe. That is the lesson taught by the two American retreats in the second world war—Kasserine Gap in Africa, the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium. I know because I had to run from both places.

In neither of these cases were the men at the front to blame. They knew and said the enemy against them was still strong. The miscalculation was made by generals far behind the lines who weren't being shot at.

Our semi-remoteness from possible foreign foes isn't an advantage. It's our biggest disadvantage. There is only one good place to fight a war—on the other fellow's soil. To do that you have to get there.

And for all the developments that have taken place in the theory of warfare, there is nothing to indicate that a vast foe such as Russia could be knocked out by anything short of a gigantic expeditionary force.

This would require every man, ship, gun, airplane and guided missile the American nation could summon in an uttermost test of its strength.

IT IS FOLLY to rely alone on our airpower. For all the tremendous bombing raids by Britain and America, the German nation continued to build up its productive power to 1944. If this concentrated bombing couldn't quell a country of 225,136 square miles and 80,000,000 population, could it subdue a land of 8,473,444 square miles and 211,384,965 home-based people?

There is a tendency to forget that in the conquest of Germany the Russians threw in from two to three ground soldiers against the Nazis for every one put in by the Allies. Yet Germany crumbled only when its earth was fought over and taken by the Allies in foot-by-foot struggles.

So only would Russia or our own country cave in—within the foreseeable future. To throttle Soviet Russia or any other big power we'd have to grab her by the throat where she lives. And that would take every doughboy, in good or bad health, we could put in uniform. It would also require every gun, tank, plane and ship we could build.

There is no push button war on the horizon yet. War today against a major foe would be not only total. It would have to be utter. No other way could victory be gained.

Children's day will be observed at St. Paul's Lutheran church Sunday.

Following the Sunday school hour at 9:30 a. m., a program will be presented by the children of the Beginners, Primary and Intermediate departments at 10:30 a. m. The offering will go to the Oesterlen Home for Children at Springfield.

Mrs. Joseph Woodward is chairman of the program committee, assisted by Mrs. Harry Weikart and Mrs. Alton Brinker. There will be no church service.

Leetonia chapter, OES, has been invited to be the guests of Hanover chapter at their meeting Friday, June 10, at 8 p. m. Those desiring transportation are asked to contact the worthy matron, Thelma Lipp.

Mrs. C. J. Stewart entertained bridge club associates at her home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Middleton is visiting her son, John Middleton and family at Detroit.

Miss Rachel Baker of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Lena Walters of Lisbon were Wednesday guests of Miss Baker's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Baker.

Harry Risher has returned to Chicago after a weekend visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Risher.

BESIDE FLYING WING, EVEN FORTRESS LOOKS OLD

STARTLING CONTRAST between the new B-35—the Northrop flying wing bomber of 100 tons and 172-foot wingspread—and the now obsolete B-17 Flying Fortress, backbone of the air war against Germany, is provided in this picture of the two in a test in the air over Muroc Air Base, California. B-35's can fly 10,000 miles nonstop at speeds far greater than B-17's. (International Soundphoto)

MORE FIGHTING FOR THE NAVY

FROM 14,500 TO 10,900 NOW, TO YEAR 11,535 IN A MORE ON ORDER

Each Symbol, 1,000 Planes

BOOSTING ITS AIR FLEET from 10,900 to 14,500 "active" planes in a year is Navy's new program to bring its air fleet up to strength comparable to an Air Force of 70 groups. World War II leftovers will be taken out of storage to gain the 14,500-plane figure. To hold this level 3,300 replacements a year will be needed. A new $753,000,000 appropriation allowed for ordering 11,535 for delivery beginning about July, 1949. (International)
